Course Description and Objectives

This course provides a basic introduction to several major countries across the developed and developing world. We will discuss the political structures, history, and culture of 15 different countries together as a class, introducing students to the major powers in today's international system. At the end of this course, students will understand the major political differences between these states, their location in the world, and the major issues facing each historically and in the present day.

Required Text

Roskin, Michael G. Countries and Concepts: Politics, Geography, Culture. 13th Edition.

Course Requirements

(1) Examinations: There will be 3 exams in this course. The exams are each worth 30% of the course grade.

(2) Participation: Students are required to attend class regularly and participate actively in class discussion. Students will be graded on their participation in class discussion, and this will make up 10% of the course grade. Active participation is necessary to garner full credit, and this means that students are expected to have done the required reading in advance, to have considered the topic under discussion as they read, and to come to class with an active interest in the material.

Course Letter Grades

Final course letter grades will be assigned based on the following scale:

A: 90-100
B: 80-89
C: 70-79
D: 60-69
F: 59 and below

I will not respond to end of semester emails requesting a grade change.

Course Policies

Absences from Exams and Late Work: Makeup exams will be allowed when students are participating in formally sanctioned University events if proper documentation is provided to the instructor prior to the exam. Makeup exams will also be allowed in the case of an extraordinary circumstance if accompanied by sufficient documentation within two days after the exam. The instructor reserves the right to determine what constitutes an extraordinary circumstance.

Academic Honor Policy: Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated. Students committing these violations will be punished according to University policy. Be familiar with what constitutes plagiarism; ignorance is not an excuse. Consult Section V in the UL Lafayette Undergraduate Bulletin for the university definitions of plagiarism for more information about what constitutes an offense.

Courtesy in the Classroom: Attention to classroom courtesy is necessary to ensure that all students have the opportunity to learn without distraction. As such, please silence and put away all cell phones and other electronic devices during class time. Please be on time to class and remain in class until you are dismissed. If you must arrive late or leave early, please take the seat nearest an exit, and enter or leave as quietly as possible. Please show respect for your fellow students by refraining from talking during lectures, as well as when other students are speaking. Similarly, please respect the opinions of your fellow students, even if you are in disagreement with them. Repeated disruption of class will lead to a reduction of your final grade.

Nondiscrimination Policy: UL Lafayette does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, religion, sex, sexual orientation or disability. This classroom is intended to be a positive learning environment based upon open communication and mutual respect. If you have any suggestions as to how I can improve the learning environment in this course, please let me know. I will give all such suggestions serious consideration.

Health Issues and Disabilities: Students are encouraged to address any special needs or accommodations with me at the beginning of the semester or as soon as you become aware of your needs. Those seeking accommodations based on disabilities should speak with the Office of Disability Services at 337-482-5252 or ods@louisiana.edu and receive documentation. You can also visit the ODS website (<http://disability.louisiana.edu>) for information on ODS services and on eligibility requirements. Furthermore, if you are concerned about your physical and/or mental well-being, I strongly encourage you to visit the UL Counseling and Testing Center, Saucier Wellness Center, OK Allen Hall, or call them at 337-482-6480. After hours help can be found by calling University Police at 337-482-6447 and asking to speak with the counselor on call.

Emergency Evacuation Procedure: Students with any sort of condition that may place them at risk during an emergency evacuation are responsible for preplanning their own evacuation strategies. You are also responsible for identifying yourself to your professor at the beginning of the semester and sharing information on your particular needs and your evacuation plan.
